

south san francisco conference center

OCTOBER.26.2011

GATEWAY CALIFORNIA

think big. act strategically. pursue bold projects.

BOB BRUNS has been in the transportation field most of his adult career. He is currently president of JIB International Inc., a Foreign Freight Forwarding company. Prior to his current position, Bob held a variety of positions within the domestic transportation industry. He is also a member of Embassy Wine Distributors, LLC. Embassy Wine sells, consolidates, and ships wine throughout the world. He is member of the faculty at San Joaquin Delta College, where he teaches Export and Logistics, among other business classes. Bob also teaches for the Centers for International Trade Development at various venues in California. Bob has extensive knowledge in export trade and practices, with specialties in transporting oversize equipment and hazardous materials. Bob holds a Bachelor of Science degree with a major in chemistry and a minor in navigation.